

Graduate Council Mission

The Graduate Council serves as the executive committee of the graduate faculty. To provide faculty and student input to policy decisions, the Graduate Council represents the Graduate Faculty, serves in an advisory capacity to the Dean of the Graduate College, approves new graduate programs and appointments to the graduate faculty, and establishes educational policies that govern graduate education throughout the College. The council is also responsible for developing and reviewing policies related to postdoctoral research and teaching associates.

Graduate Council Work Flow

